

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital

We are looking for committed and passionate people to join our dynamic team of dedicated, caring veterinary medicine professionals at the only veterinary teaching hospital in the state of Texas!

Our Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital at Texas A&M University is AAHA accredited, IVECCS level 2 certified facility, AVMA accredited and an employer of VTS.

In both the Large and Small Animal Hospitals, we take a collaborative approach to managing each case. We are dedicated to the total well-being and care of an animal throughout its lifetime and provide “A Better Life” that is not available anywhere else.

Our entire team has made a commitment to collaboratively provide the best medicine available through a full spectrum of veterinary care. We offer annual preventive medicine through our Primary Care and Dental services to complex surgical procedures through our Soft Tissue and Orthopedic Surgery Services. Additionally, we offer a comprehensive cancer treatment through our Oncology Service. Known for our excellence & expertise, our doctors are leaders in their fields. We have a growing caseload of more than 24,000 cases per year, a multidisciplinary faculty of over 180 veterinarians, and a support staff of over 400 caring people.

We have access to state-of-the-art equipment and advanced facilities and are a model for excellence throughout the state of Texas and beyond. Come work with great people, great clinicians, and great educators with a passion for animals and training the next generation of veterinarians!

When you find a home with us here at the Vet Hospital you will see that the Texas A&M System is committed to offering employees a comprehensive benefits package including health, dental, vision, life insurance, flexible spending accounts, retirement, and various work-life benefits. You will also discover why College Station has been ranked on Kiplinger magazine’s list of 10 Great Places to Live and also rated as one of America’s best college towns and as a finalist for the nation’s friendliest. We are one of the safest places in Texas with an excellent school district and no state tax. College Station/Bryan is one of the fastest growing metros in the country, but we still have a small-town feel with Aggieland traditions, Texas hospitality, and lots of sunshine. College Station is truly a unique place to work, live and call home – come join us!
