

Cornell University Hospital for Animals

Ranked consistently as one of the best veterinary colleges in the nation, Cornell University Hospital for Animals (CUHA) provides leadership in patient care, education, and clinical investigation and scientific innovation.

CUHA is a champion for those wanting to continue to grow professionally and personally. If you're looking to join a team dedicated to excellence in every way, consider us.

Current Opportunities

Licensed Veterinary Technicians

Anesthesia: provide routine and complex anesthesia techniques - anesthetize and recover companion, equine and farm animal patients

Oncology: Share responsibility for patient management and client support for companion animals with cancer - has an inclination towards leadership, thrives in an independent, yet team oriented work environment and can connect to various other services in the hospital

Dentistry: Help run an efficient dentistry service; - greeting, receiving and discharging clients; conducting physical/oral exams, drawing blood and coordinating procedures with auxiliary services

Surgery: Excel in pressure situations, can communicate quickly and directly, has a team-based approach and mindset, and provide experience in cutting edge surgical techniques.

Amazing Benefits

- Competitive compensation, health insurance, and retirement
- 3 weeks of vacation, 12 holidays, Health and Personal Leave
- A rich array of services, programs and benefits to help employees advance in their career and enhance the quality of personal life

For more information, please email Toral Patel, recruiter, tdp38@cornell.edu

The best care starts with the best caregivers