

Licensed Veterinary Technician, VTS Anesthesia and Analgesia – Katy, TX

Job Description: Veterinary Dentistry Specialists (VDS) seeks a talented and motivated Licensed Veterinary Technician with VTSAA to become part of a new and exciting single-specialty dentistry and oral surgery referral practice. Our new hospital will be located in beautiful Katy, TX, 20 miles west of downtown Houston. Full diagnostics, imaging (including CT) and modern anesthesia equipment will be available. This is a very exciting opportunity to get in on the ground floor of a start-up practice with no limits on how far you can grow as a person and as a professional.

VDS is proud to provide a high level of medical care to patients, and five-star customer service to clients. Advanced dentistry and oral surgery procedures including endodontics, oral and maxillofacial surgeries (fracture repair, oncological resections, TMJ surgery), periodontics, orthodontics, and prosthodontics will be performed by a board-certified veterinary dentist and oral surgeon. As a VTSAA you will be providing outstanding patient care alongside a board-certified anesthesiologist. We firmly believe in providing a friendly and gratifying work environment that provides an excellent work-life balance for the employees.

We value the experience of our technicians and expect them to play an active role in patient care and in our hospital. VDS supports career development for technicians, encourages continuing education and pursuit of special interests. Creativity and individualism are highly encouraged. Interested persons must be team players, get along with others and understand there is no task too big or too small for any member of our team. We offer a competitive salary, health insurance benefits, and a 401(k)-retirement plan.

Katy offers a beautiful suburban life with exemplary rated schools, many activities for kids to participate in (sports, music, fine arts), and a wide variety of restaurants to enjoy. Katy is a suburb of Houston, which is a diverse city that offers a spectacular variety of things to do. Houston is known for its exquisite cuisine, multitude of fine arts, and professional sports teams to name a few.
